08/01/04—Iraq: The South Central Connection—Hosts Laura Diaz and Paul Magers focus on the LA police chief's assertion that there were areas of South Central LA that were worse than Falluja. Residents were issued video cameras to put that claim to the test.

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK: "60 MINUTES"

07/11/04—"Boosting"— a report on organized South American gangs who are involved in 'boosting' -- the theft of billions of dollars of merchandise from U.S. stores. Most of the thieves started out as pickpockets in countries like Colombia, Chile, Ecuador and Peru before being brought to the U.S. to join what the FBI calls 'South American Theft Groups.' (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)

08/08/04--"Lost In Translation"- a report on hundreds of foreign language documents that the FBI failed to translate before and after September 11th because of problems in its language department -- documents that detailed what the FBI heard on wiretaps and learned during interrogations of suspected terrorists. Sibel Edmonds, a former FBI translator, claims that the documents were not translated because the division is riddled with incompetence and corruption. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky, Tanya Simon)

08/08//04--"The World's Greatest Fakes" - an undercover investigation of the China-based multi-billion dollar industry of counterfeiting American brand products. Includes interviews with: Stu Herrington, head of security for Callaway Golf Clubs; Dan Chow, a law professor at Ohio State; attorney Harley Lewin; and Jack Clode, an investigator for Kroll Associates. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich, Wendy Krantz)

08/15/04--"Pirates Of The Internet" - a report on the movie industry's efforts to combat a steadily growing threat from online piracy. Studio representatives claim that piracy is just another form of theft, but a federal judge has ruled that file-swapping networks are not liable for what down loaders are doing. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)

08/29/04--"Nuclear Insecurity" - a report on charges that security at the nine nuclear weapons factories and research laboratories operated by the Department of Energy is inadequate. Includes interviews with: Richard Levernier, a Department of Energy nuclear security specialist; Linton Brooks, head of the National Nuclear Securities Administration; Matthew Zipoli, Vice President of the Guards Union; Sen. Charles Grassley (R-Iowa); and Chris Steele, the Department of Energy's senior safety official at Los Alamos. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)

09/12/04--"DNA Dragnet" - controversy has arisen over the collection by the police of blood and saliva samples from hundreds of people after a crime has been committed. Proponents of these so-called DNA dragnets claim that the innocent have no cause for alarm. Critics call them an invasion of privacy charging that the government offers no assurance that the information gathered will remain confidential. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian)

"All In The Family" - a recent U.S. Government study on the increase in identity theft reveals the fact that in nine percent of all cases, a family member is the culprit. Includes interviews with: Abigail Kelly, who was victimized by her sister; "Lynn" whose son stole her identity; Linda Foley who with her husband Jay runs the Identity Theft Resource Center; Mary Zupanc, twice the victim of identity theft, and her husband David Jones. Dr. Zupanc was interviewed in "Change Of Address" (C: Lesley Stahl - P: David Browning) (additional P: Barbara Dury, Deborah DeLuca Sheh)

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK: "60 MINUTES WEEKDAY EDITION"

07/07/04--"Mutual Fraud" - a report on mutual funds allowing illegal practices such as: 'late trading' -- setting orders after the close of the stock exchange -- and 'market timing' -- quickly buying and selling mutual fund shares. Includes interviews with Eliot Spitzer, New York State Attorney General; Noreen Harrington, a Wall Street veteran and whistle-blower; and James Nesfield, an investment banker who admits to 'market timing.' (C: Bob Simon - P: Peter Klein, Trisha L. Sorrells)

07/07/04 "The Mind Of A Serial Killer" - videotaped confessions of Gary Ridgway, the Green River killer, who for 20 years terrorized the Northwest. Two months ago Ridgway pled guilty to killing 48 women -- part of a controversial deal: Ridgway's life in exchange for details about the murders. Includes interviews with some of the detectives who worked on the case. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK: "48 HOURS"

08/27/04--48 HOURS INVESTIGATES: "A Family Accused" - 2) "Getting It Right" - a report on the Dallas Children's Advocacy Center, a program whose aim is to draw information from children in sexual abuse cases without leading them in any given direction. Includes an interview with Cheryl Sutterfield, director of the center. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Chuck Stevenson) (Sr. P: of "A Family Accused" - Reid Collins Jr.)
